Vintage & Fine Wines

Chateau Petrus 1987 £4,200

label has been damaged*

The 1987, one of the most backward and full-bodied wines of the vintage, with a tremendous amount of tannic clout, yet excellent underlying power and body, remains closed. It is medium to full-bodied, with a reticent bouquet of vanillin, herbs, and sweet black fruit, and a long, firm finish

Tenuta San Guido Sassicaia 2018 £920

The wine's careful balance is achieved thanks to the nuanced character of the fruit, the present acidity, the well-managed structure, and the contained alcohol.

The palate is lifted and bright, the finish is polished and long, and the wine skips over any heaviness on the mid-palate. The bouquet is especially intriguing with a very lively plummy fruit element that is enhanced by baker's chocolate, pepper spice, iron ore, caramel, and pie crust. There is also a green character that adds positively to the bouquet with aniseed, tea leaf, soya, menthol rub, and black olive. The fruit maturity is spot-on with no elements that feel over or underripe.

Antinori Solaia 2018 £930

Solaia 2018 is an intense ruby-red color. Its nose offers intense notes of dark, ripe fruit in particular blueberries and black currants that merge seamlessly with pleasant sensations of dried flowers and lavender, accompanied by delicate spicy notes of white pepper and balsamic notes of mint and eucalyptus. Sweet, well-integrated aromas of white chocolate, cotton candy and dried fruit complete its rich bouquet. On the palate, Solaia 2018 is mouth filling and creamy: soft, silky tannins impart an extremely elegant, lengthy and lingering finish, with a pleasing aftertaste reminiscent of licorice. Floral and spicy notes originally perceived on the nose accent the finish.

Gaja Sori' San Lorenzo Barbaresco 2017 £1,100

Sourced from the GAJA winery's top growing site, San Lorenzo, located just south of the village of Barbaresco in the famed cru Secondine. Gaja Barbaresco Sori' San Lorenzo is an elegant, intense and complex red wine. On the nose, it offers a complex range of sensations ranging from ripe fruit and spices nuanced by aromatic herbs to spices and undergrowth. It is simple in its youth but grows into its full potential over the years becoming a meaty and concentrated wine. A real experience. Aged in wood Respectful agriculture.

Batard Montrachet Grand Cru Vincent Morey 2018 £520

Tasting a wine of this stature is always cause for emotion. The golden color has bright reflections. After some aeration, the aromas reveal their rich intensity: grilled bread, almond, honey, exotic wood...What is striking is the structure of the wine, its "monumental" grandeur. There is even a touch of tannin that provides an added dimension. A voluptuous finale, seemingly without end, with precious notes of preserved and ripe fruit.

Gaia & Rey Langhe DOC 2020 £510

Gaia & Rey Langhe is a creamy white wine with aromas of white fruit, citrus, and tropical fruit accompanied by balsamic and toasted notes. On the palate, it is complex, deep, and elegant. A wine full of fruit, with vibrant acidity and an intense, long, and expressive finish.
